QUESTION 2

Your organization is using a plan-driven approach to business analysis.

What must you do with all of the communication documents created as part of this high-priority project that you are serving as the business analyst for?

- A. All formal communication must be destroyed once the project is completed.
- B. All communications must be documented and passed onto the solution's project manager for analysis and to serve as supporting detail.
- C. The communications management plan will dictate what will happen to the business analysis communications.
- D. All communications must be archived and will become part of the organizational process as sets.

Correct Answer: D

QUESTION 3

You are the business analyst for your organization and are working with Ralph who is also a business analyst at your company. You have moved one of the requirements higher in the prioritization of the requirements because it is needed to be implemented before some of the more important requirements are done. Ralph disagrees with your placement of the requirement because you are to rank the requirements based on their level of difficulty.

Who is correct and why?

- A. Ralph is correct because the requirements are always to be ranked by importance or business value.
- B. You are correct because the lower priority requirements must be completed before the higher priority requirements can be done.
- C. You are correct because you are the senior business analyst.
- D. Ralph is correct because the sequence of requirements is actually done with the project activity list.

Correct Answer: B
