QUESTION 1

Effective team mechanics would typically NOT include which of the following?

- A. The development of an agenda
- B. The support of upper management
- C. The distribution of minutes
- D. The meeting time, frequency and location

Correct Answer: B

The keys to this question are "mechanics" and "not include." A team must have the support of upper management (answer b). However, this is the answer to a question that is not asked. This question deals with team mechanics, which includes agendas, times, locations, minutes, etc. Answers a, c and d are all necessary team mechanics.
