QUESTION 1

The production's slight romantic appeal depends on its two stars, who are _____ to watch even when they are delivering _____ speeches.

- A. overbearing; innocent
- B. farcical; complex
- C. attractive; creative
- D. impossible; dull
- E. pleasant; empty

Correct Answer: E

The use of the conjunction "even when" implies a contrast within the sentence. So, the two missing words must mean the opposites of each other. If the drama's appeal depends on its two stars, it means that they are either "attractive" to watch or "pleasant" to watch. But the pair "attractive; creative" does not justify the use of the phrase "even when." So, "pleasant; empty" is the answer.
